LOCAL BRIEFS.

——The streets are getting down on a more solid basis at last.

——There is some prospect of Kate Claxton coming here, after all.

——The collections at the office of Internal Revenue yesterday were $2,-875.15.

——Only one trival case was tried at the Mayor's court yesterday, a slight affray.

——A drummers' license was yesterday issued by the State Treasurer to A. H. Stump & Co. Baltimore.

——The warm breath of the breezes, the opening flowers, and the dusty streets bring memories of spring.

——Cotton continued quiet and tolerably steady yesterday. Receipts tolerably large. The demand was good.

——The next term of Franklin court by a change in the law, will be held at the end of April, instead of at the end of this month, as formerly.

——Messrs. Pritchard & Brooks are just in receipt of a large lot of splendid oak and hickory wood, and some of the best coal ever brought to this market. This is comfortable news to the cold people in this city.

——Letters are held at the post office addressed to Miss M. F. Avent, New Hill, N. C., and Mrs. J. A. Pleasants, Clayton, N. C., without stamps; and a postal card signed H. C. Murrill, with no address.

——The revival in progres at the Salisbury street Baptist church continues nightly, and interest it is on the increase. As many as a dozen persons have been converted, and the good work is not yet ended.

PERSONALS.—Col. Paul B. Means, of Concord, is in the city, as is also Col. Thos. H. Holt, of Haw River.

T. B Hyman Esq., of Goldsboro, is at the Yarboro.

Col. Marshall Parks, of Norfolk, is at the Yaroboro.

THE NATIONAL FIRE.—Elsewhere is published the annual statement of the National Fire Insurance Company, represented in this State by Col. J. Wilder Atkinson of Wilmington, N. C. The company makes a good showing and is represented by one of the leading insurance men.

BLOCKADING TOBACCO.—Mr. Josephus Johnson, a white resident of Johnston county, was before the U. S. Commissioner yesterday, charged with having in his possession unstamped tobacco which it was his business and intention to sell. Mr. Johnson waived an examination and promptly gave $250 bond for his appearance at the June Term of the Circuit Court,

J. J. THOMAS, Esq.—Elsewhere is published the advertisement of this well known and most reliable gentleman. He advertises heavy receipts in Allison & Addison's complete cotton manure, acid-phosphates, and other standard fertilizers. From the high reputation he enjoys among the farmers of this section, it would be safe to say that there is no house in this city superior in any respect to that of J. J. Thomas.

IMPORTANT TO MAGISTRATES.—The General Assembly has enacted a law which is now in force, which says that no Justice of the Peace shall issue a warrant in any case of bastardy, except upon the voluntary oath of the mother of the child, or upon the certificate of one of the county commissioners, that the child is about to become chargeable to the county.

ACCIDENT.—Yesterday afternoon, as a Mr. Parrish of Johnston county was on his way from the Penitentiary to the city, in a buggy, the horse took a sudden turn and threw him out of the vehicle. He fell on some gravel, which cut his forehead badly. He was brought in the city and taken to a drug store where his wound was attended to, and found to be not serious, though it made a bad mark, splitting his forehead open.

A COMPLIMENT WELL DESERVED.—It is with no small degree of pleasure and satisfaction that we learn of the compliment paid our young friend and townsman, Mr. David C. Dudley, in his recent election to the position of Principal of the Kentucky Institution for the Deaf and Dumb. And when we think of him in connection with our own State Institution, his labors of love, his years of usefulness, his devotion to, and unsurpassed success in the work of Deaf—mute instruction, we can only say that the compliment is doubly deserved. His long association with deaf-mutes, and his prolonged experience in the management of this class of our fellow-beings together with his natural adaptabilities to this field of labor, peculiarly fit him to the high and responsible position to which he has been called. Knowing Mr. Dudley as we do, we feel sure that his place cannot be easily filled in our Institution, which he loved so well and has served so faithfully for fifteen long years. And we can only be reconciled to the loss which we have sustained, in the fact that the cause at large will so be benefitted. We can fully appreciate the feelings of one of the officers who recently said to us. We could not blame the Ky. Institution for taking Mr. D. from us, if they knew him as we do." This is the sentiment of all who know him. We congratulate our young friend upon his success and the trust to which he goes upon its acquisition.

REPERTORIAL WOES.—The great public, composed of clever people in greater part, little imagine the straits and distresses of repertoral life. They always take their paper in the morning and scan its columns, looking first at the local news. If by happy chance there have been a sufficient number of occurences the day previous to enable the reporter to give a lot of news, they are satisfied, but if the columns are in the slightest degree barren, they cry out, as if they were in a measure deprived of the news. If readers could but appreciate or even know the woes of a reporter in this very respect, they would the better understand his perplexities. Take the city yesterday for instance. A country town could furnish as much or more of news, for save one of the trivial occurrences, there was not an item to be had. Yet something must be said, else the local columns would present a pitiful appearance. Unless the reporter be inventive, or dilates upon trivialities, he is in a lane which has no turning. In such straits the only thing he can do is to thus tell his woes.

THE LADY REVIVALIST.—For above a year past a lady by the name of Moon has been conducting revival meetings in various parts of the State, and in nearly all cases with unprecedented success. She is of the Quaker persuasion, but preaches in all the churches, her good work not being confined to any particular denomination. Last summer she carried on a grand revival at Winston, during which some hundred persons were converted, and an intense interest was manifested by all people in her work. Not long since she began a revival at Durham, and that town has become excited to an unusual extent. The meetings are held nightly in the Methodist Church, and the building cannot hold the throngs that crowd there. People go in from the country and are converted, and the lady is conceded to have wonderful powers as a revivalist. Mrs. Moon has been written to by the pastor of the Edenton Street Methodist Church, requesting her to pay this city a visit, and inaugurate a series of meetings. It is said she will accept the invitation, and her arrival is looked for soon.

Flames From a Salt Well.

A portion of the salt business is likely to be diverted from Syracuse. For some time a company has been engaged in sinking a salt well at LeRoy. A Rochester writer says: There were no very decided results until yesterday afternoon, but the demonstration was lively enough then, and for a few moments the frightened workmen were under the impression that their drill had pierced the infernal regions.

Shortly after twelve o'clock the depth of 450 feet was reached, when gas appeared in moderate quantities, but gradually the supply increased and at 2 o'clock it came out with such a rush that it was ignited by the fire in a coal stove, ten feet distant from the mouth of the well. The house in which the men were working was instantly filled with flames and they barely escaped with their lives.

In a few seconds the woodwork caught fire and the destruction of the entire derrick seemed inevitable, but the gas was followed by a rush of water which rose to the height of fifty feet in the air, quickly extinguishing the flames. Then followed alternate floods of gas and jets of water, each one holding its own for about a minute and a half before it gave way to the other. The water had a strong sulphuric taste at first, with a slight appearance of salt, and as the supply of gas commenced to diminish, the flow of water increased.

By degrees the water became less sulphurous and more thickly impregnated with salt, until at half past five o'clock it was a strong brine, spouting to a height of seventy feet. Steadily increasing, at half-past seven o'clock it reached an altitude of one hundred and ten feet, which it held. The bore of the well is eight inches, and the casting taking up about an inch, leaves an opening of seven inches in diamter from which the solid stream is thrown high in the air. At the latest reports the field in which the well is located was flooded with brine.

A Monstrous Doctrine.

New York Nation.

In their frantic efforts to cover over the undeniable difficulties of the race question at the south, many stalwart republicans—the New York Tribune among the number—have laid down the monstrous doctrine that a majority, however ignorant or brutal, has a right to work its will with the civilization of any society it gets under its control, and that resistance to it would be wrong. This is democracy run mad, and whatever the outcome of the Chinese question, it is pleasant to find that it is serving as a solvent of some of the absurdities begotten by the conflict over suffrage No man, race or class, has any divine right to work mischief; but when a race or class is working mischief, or is likely to work it, the repetition of sounding phrases, but in the calm recognition of the facts, and in appropriate and practicable remedies. The phrase "human rights" is no more an excuse for folding our hands and perishing than the Mussulman's phrase that "God is great."

An Educational League.

There is in France a powerful society called the "League of Instruction," formed in 1876. The League gives special attention to the propagation of intelligence among the population of the rural regions. It holds that mere schooling is not education, and hence it seeks to establish all through France village libraries largely made up of books on agriculture and the various industries. It also furnishes special libraries for soldiers. The League has become a centre of educational societies, the number of which runs over four hundred, with thirty-five thousand members. Thus far the League has established 246 libraries for the villagers, and 171 for soldiers, and it has also made contributions to 226 libraries that were previously in existence. The success of the League has been aided by the fact that each member has the right to introduce any motion or proposition, and by the publication of the proceedings at at the meetings.

OUR LAW MAKERS.

SENATE.

THURSDAY, March 6, 1879.

The Senate met at 10 a. m., President Robinson in the chair.

Prayer by Rev. Dr. Pritchard.

REPORTS.

Reports of standing and select comtees were presented by Messrs. Shackelford, Leach, Scales, Henderson, Nicholson, Bryan, of Pender, Davidson, and Merritt.

PETITIONS.

Mr. Matheson presented a petition for the appointment of a commission to lay off public roads in the counties of Alexander, Wilkes and Watauga. Calendar.

SPECIAL ORDERS.

The revenue bill was made the special order for 11:30 to-morrow.

On motion of Mr. Lyon, the bill to authorize the funding of the county debt of Granville was made the special order for 1 o'clock to-morrow.

On motion of Mr. Dortch, the bill to authorize certain operating expenses on the Western North Carolina Railroad was made the special order for 11 o'clock to-morrow.

N. C RAILROAD CONSTRUCTION BONDS.

The bill to compound and adjust a portion of the debt of the State (N. C. construction bonds) and to provide for the payment thereof, the first special order for to-day, , was put upon its third reading.

Mr. Dortch moved that the reading of the bill be dispensed with, as it was fully considered by sections on its second reading.

Mr. Williamson offered an amendment striking out the power to create a commission, &c.

Mr. Mebane said Mr. Williamson's substitute was indefinite as to what bonds it was proposed to exchange, and as to the rates of interest, &c. It was confusion worse confounded, and incomplete in every shape and form—this in return for the fling Mr. Williamson had on a former occasion thought proper to make at the pending bill.

Mr. Williamson had only offered an amendment, not a substitute, the object of which was to strike out the commission proposed to be created.

The chair ruled the amendment of Mr. Williamson to be of the nature of a substitute for the entire bill.

Mr. Snow thought it extremely unwise to put the Justices of the Supreme Court on the Commission, and trusted the matter would be left in the hands of the Governor.

A division of the question was demanded on the substitute of Mr. Wilson and the Senate refused to strike out.

Mr. Snow now moved to strike out "the Justices of the Supreme Court" and leave the appointment of the commission to the Governor.

Mr. Mebane accepted the amendment.

The bill then passed its third reading, as thus amended, by a vote of 25 to 13, and was ordered to be engrossed and sent to the House.

SUMMARY INVESTIGATIONS.

The bill to provide for summary investigations of county and other expenditures, the second special order for to-day, was taken up.

Mr. Dancey opposed the bill.

Mr. Austin moved to lay it on the table, and it was tabled by a vote of 21 to 18.

At a later hour, Mr. Dortch moved to re-consider this vote. He said he had just examined the bill, and considered it of the utmost importance, and urged its passage.

Mr. Everett, the introducer of the bill explained its provisions.

Mr. Dortch's motion was agreed to, and then the bill passed its third reading and went to the House.

MACHINERY BILL.

The Machinery bill, the third special order, was put upon its third reading.

Mr. Alexander declined to urge his substitute, and there being no amendments offered, the bill passed its final reading, by a vote of 29 to 7, and was ordered to be enrolled.

CALENDAR—SENATE BILLS.

The following Senate bills passed their several readings and were sent to the House, or otherwise disposed of as indicated;

Bill for the relief of John and Margaret Braud, of Greene county.

Bill to authorize the several townships to levy a special tax for the support of graded schools. Postponed till 2 p. m. to-morrow.

Bill to repeal chapter 99, Battle's Revisal, title "Railroads."

Bill to consolidate the towns of Winston and Forsyth.

Bill to aid in the construction of the Asheville and Spartanburg Railroad. [Authorizes the hiring of 100 convicts, to be paid for and supported by the company.]

Bill to authorize the commissioners of Edgecombe county to settle outstanding school claims.

Bill to prohibit the sale of intoxicating liquors within three quarters of a mile of Trap Hill Academy, Wilkes county.

Bill to incorporate the town of Kilquick, Edgecombe county.

Bill to amend the act prohibiting the sale of spiritous liquors in certain localities.

Bill to expedite trials of criminal actions on their merits, amended. [This bill was ably discussed by Messrs. Henderson, Bynum, Everett, Davidson and Dortch, but being strictly a legal question, and intelligible synopsis is impossible with our limited space. The bill is said to be very desirable.]

OXFORD ORPHAN ASYLUM.

Senate resolution to authorize a contribution from the State treasury of $5,000 to aid in the maintenance of the orphans of the Oxford Asylum, was taken up.

Mr. Harris, who introduced the resolution trusted it would pass without a dissenting voice. The object, he said, commended itself as second to no other in the State. If the State owed any debt, that debt was due to the orphans of North Carolina, and coming from a district which paid largely of the public burdens, he was determined as long as he had a voice in the matter, to vote to support these unfortunate children. He strongly and feelingly appealed to the Senate in their behalf. It was cheaper he said, taking the narrowest view of the matter, to care for and protect in the Asylum than in the poor-houses, or our penal institutions. He pictured these children being driven homeless and friendless into the cold, heartless world, and contrasted their condition, in such case, with that of children brought up under the refining influence of religious, moral and intellectual training. Speaking of himself, he said he had been liberal in all he had done and said during the session. He did not come here to represent his distrust simply, but under a sense of high responsibility to all portions of the State, and he trusted that the burdens supporting the helpless orphans would now be shared by all.

Mr. Snow could bear witness to the magnanimous conduct of Mr. Harris, having sat beside him during the session, and he knew he had the cause of the orphan deeply at heart. In urging the adoption of the resolution, Mr. S. paid a high tribute to Mr. Harris, and said that his entire course met with general approbation. Mr. Snow made an eloquent appeal on behalf of the orphan, and spoke highly of the management and needs of the asylum.

Mr. Scales followed in another eloquent appeal, and concluded by moving to amend by striking out $5,000 and inserting $3,000, announcing at the same time, that should the Senate be of the opinion that the larger sum was needed he would cheerfully vote for it. He thought, however, that three thousand dollars would be enough.

Mr. White was desirous of seeing the orphans taken care of but he cautioned the Senate to be careful in opening a channel to the treasury.

Mr. Harris accepted Mr. Scales' ammendment.

Messrs. Leach, Austin, Redwine, Ward, King, Williamoson, and Merritt advocated the passage of the resolution and passed its several readings with but three dissenting votes.

Bill for the purpose of keeping in repair the roads of the State, was taken up, pending the consideration of which the hour of 3 having arrived, the Senate took a recess till 7:30 o'clock.

NIGHT SESSION.

The Senate resumed its session at 7:30 p. m.

THE ROAD BILL.

On motion of Mr. Lyon, the bill was ordered to be printed and made the special order for 12 m. Monday.

By leave, Mr. Ross introduced a bill to authorize the commissioners of Brunswick county to levy a special tax for the years 1879-'80. Calendar.

House bill to extend the town of Monroe, Union county, passed its third reading and was ordered to be enrolled.

THE BELL PUUCH.

The bill to provide for the collection of the tax on spirituous liquors (the "bell punch") was taken up, it being made the special order for 8 p. m.

Mr. Ormand moved to lay the bill on the table, and called the ayes and noes. Rejected—26 to 5.

Mr. Bull moved to strike out of section 21 the amendment incorporated last night, to restore the section as originally reported—that is, to exempt from taxation all manufacturers of liquors sold in less quantities than five gallons.

Mr. King moved that wines and liquors manufactured from fruit be exempt from the provisions of this act. This amendment was accepted.

The question now recurred on the amendment of Mr. Bull, as amended by Mr. Kings amendment, and it was adopted—ayes 31, noes 7.

Mr. Leach offered a substitute for the bill providing for specific license taxes as follows, and no others. Retail dealers $50, wholesale dealers $100, retail and wholesale combined $150, drummers $200 per annum and no other tax.

Mr. Snow opposed the bill.

Mr. Caldwell insisted upon the additional revenue required being drawn from the whisky business.

Some little filibustring was now engaged in, but was quickly frowned down.

Mr. Leach, by consent, proceeded to address the Senate. He yielded to no man on the temperance question, but he was now dealing with a question of revenue. The proposition he had submitted would raise $100 000 more than that of the committee.

Mr. Everett called the previous question.

Mr. Snow called for the ayes and noes. The call for the previous question was not sustained.

Mr. Bynum moved to amend sec. 3 by making the licenses for "not less than two months," instead of twelve months.

Mr. Graham, of Lincoln, moved to amend Mr. Bynum's amendment so as to make it read 'less than two months." The object of both these amendments was to enable persons to take out license for special public occasions and thereby increase the revenue.

Mr. Ormand moved to amend by providing that any man known to drink at all will not be competent against the liquor dealer.

The previous question was now called.

Mr. Ormand's amendment was rejected.

Mr. Bynum's also failed.

Mr. Graham's was adopted, and the amendment increasing the drummer's license from $200 to $400 was agreed to.

The question was now upon the bill of the committee as amended and it was rejected, 22 to 17.

Mr. Leach moved to reconsider the vote by which the bill was lost, stating that he desired to raise a large amount of revenue from the sale of alcoholic liquors.

Mr. Snow moved to lay the motion to reconsider on the table. Rejected by 27 to 13.

Mr. Leach's motion was then agreed to, and the further consideration of the bill was made the special order for 7 1-2 p. m. to-morrow. The Senate then adjourned.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

THURSDAY, March 6 h, 1879.

The Speaker called the House to order and Rev. W. C. Norman offered a prayer.

REPORTS

Of committees were submitted by Messrs Richardson, of Columbus, English, Andrey, Woodhouse.

PETITIONS

Were presented by Messrs. Mebane, and Cobb.

RESOLUTIONS

Were introduced by Mr. Turner.

UNFINISHND BUSINESS.

Bill to allow the C. & L N. G. R R. to change its gauge, passed.

WILLIAMSTON & TARBORO R R.

Bill to commute, compromise and settle that portion of the debt due on the Williamston & Tarboro R. R., came up on its final reading. This bill was fully discussed on Monday, and passed its second reading by a large majority.

Mr. Amis spoke in favor of the bill. Mr. Foard opposed it, not deeming it desirable to recognize the bonds. He offered an amendment authorizing the Treasurer to take up $50,000 of the bonds. Mr. Robertson said all the bonds were due by the State, and she was secured by the mortgage. There was now $30.000 of track laid, and $180,000 worth of work done. The return of the bonds did not really recognize them. Mr. Cooke said that the bonds should be taken up, and that they were not of the character of the special tax bonds, nor would their recognition do ought to make those valid. These bonds are of a different class, but were created by a particular act, and the work on the road had been done.

Mr. McGehee desired to know whether the bill to settle the debt, passed a few days passed, was difinitive of the debts, or whether these classes of bonds should be similarly acknowledged. He thought that it should not be acknowledged as proposed, and this repudiated obligation not take place with others which are valid and acted upon, as they have been by this Assembly. He opposed Mr. Foard's amendment, as obnoxious to the constitutional objection urged by Mr. Cooke.

Mr. Clarke could see no constitutional objection to Mr. Foard's amendment. The bonds were recognized by the State debt committee, and were not included in the general bill for the reason that it was thought better terms could be made outside.

Mr. Bernard said the committee had recognized these bonds. The previous question was called, and Mr. Foard's amendment was voted down.

The bill then passed its final reading.

THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

Bill to revise and consolidate the Public School law, came up as special order.

An amendment by Mr. English, making county treasurers custodians of county school funds, was adopted.

Mr. Colwell offered an amendment providing that when ten or more children live at an inconvenient distance from the school house, they shall be alllowed a pro rata share of school fund, for a private school. It was argued then by several gentlemen that this amendment would practically nullify the public school system, it was lost.

Section 26 of the bill, which prescribes what taxes shall be devoted to the school fund, was discussed, Mr. Colwell moving to strike it out. Mr. Rawley said the object of the section was to make the law conform to constitution. Mr. Colwell thought the matter should be left to the County Commissioners, while Mr. Clarke thought it should be compulsory upon them.

Mr. Colwell withdrew the motion to strike out the section and introduced an amendment placing the matter in the hands of the County Commissioners. Mr. Coffield and Mr. Mebane favored this amendment, while Mr. Mebane thought the care of providing for the public schools should be peculiarly the province of this General Assembly.

Mr. English said the present school system was imperfect, and unless the terms could be longer it would be best to abolish the system, and to run schools for only 9 weeks out of 52 was absurd, and it will be a shame upon this body if it does not provide for the emergency. Upon this amendment hangs the fate of the public schools, and it should be passed. The amendment was then put to a vote and adopted.

The question of the amount of tax to be imposed for the schools came up, an amendment being made to strike out 10 cents and say 8½ and strke out 30 and insert 25. Mr. Reynolds opposed this amendment, as no deduction in this particular should be made; the schools getting but a pittance now, and needing more. Mr. Foard said the scaool fund was increasing yearly and the fines and forfeitures all went to swell it. Besides the new machinery act would swell it.

Mr. Ethridge did not favor the amendment, nor did Mr. Cary, the latter saying that it directly in opposition to the constitutional injunction to foster and encourage education. He thought the Assembly did not deem this subject as important as they should. It was the aim of wise legislation to raise the people from ignorance, as the sum provided was all needed to maintain the system. There should be no step backward.

Mr. Carter, of Buncombe, said the difference caused by the amendment would be about $25,000, or $260 to each county, $29 to each school district, about one months pay of teacher, and he opposed the amendment and wished the bill to go through as it now stands. In the name of the children of the State he protested against the reduction.

Mr. Turner said the drawback to the education of the people was the want of money, not teachers, and yet this amendment struck at this, to reduce it.

The amendment was then lost, and the section was adopted as in the bill.

Pending the further discussion of the biil, at 3 p. m. the House adjourned.

EVENING SESSION.

The consideration of the public school bill was resumed.

To sec. 50 an amendment was offered, allowing an addition tax to be laid upon any school district, upon application of a majority of the school committee, the Board of county commissioners to order the election. The amendment also provides for all the machinery of such voting.

DEAF MUTES, BLIND AND INSANE.

Bill to amend the constitution of the State in regrad to the support of the Deaf Mutes, Blind and Insane, by saying that the General Assembly "may" provide for their maintenance instead of "shall" provide, as the present law directs. The bill came up on its final reading and passed. The discussion on the previous reading of the bill was full and was reported, and no remarks were made on this third reading.

Bill to provide for the support of the Penitentiary. Passed.

Bill to incorporate the Farmer's Bank of Milton, passed.

HUSSEY & JORDAN, Prop's

JOHN H. HUSSEY, - Editor.

Senatorial Meanness.

Nothing of late that has occurred in the United States Senate shows so much the narrow-mindedness and meanness of the Republicans in that body as the fuss over giving Jeff Davis, as one of the Mexican war veterans, a pension. School boys would not be guilty of such petty meanness and spite. The question of including Davis among the rest of those who fought in Mexico, as a pensioner, had nothing whatever to do with the Rebellion, and the sum he would have received if the bill had passed, was too insignificant to be thought of for a moment. No one supposes Mr. Davis is more to be blamed for secession than thousands of others, or, in fact, than the mass of the Southern people. Many of those who were as active as he was, or more active, in bringing about secession have become Federal officeholders and members and Senators in Congress. Mosby, the Confederate guerilla general, and some others, have actually become the pets of the Republican party, and have been honored with prominent public offices. Then, the war is long past, and the Confederate States and citizens have been restored to their privileges. Why, then, single out Davis for attack? He was but one of millions in a great movement, and only the creature of it, however, reprehensible it may be regarded. Had the Republican Senators possessed a spark of magnanimity, or even of common sense, they would not have raised a question that had nothing to do with the Rebellion. The truth is, they wished to defeat the Mexican soldiers' pension bill, which they had previously passed, and made this an excuse. Their object, too, was to revive the sectional and war feeling, which happily is fast dying out, for party purposes. A more contemptible piece of meanness, dodging and political claptrap was never known in the Senate.

Vagrants

A distinguished jurist of our city has presented to us a bill to abolish tramps in this State. We publish the bill in another column. It will be introduced at the approaching session of our general assembly, and we publish it with the hope that those who have at all considered this important matter may submit such amendments as they think proper.

The great curse of our land is idleness, and we have all over our city a gang of vagrants that certainly need heroic treatment. The law that we have is treated by our courts as if it was obsolete. If we make it more stringent it is possible we may bring it to the attention of those whose duty it is to administer it.

We are sorely afflicted with a class of vagabonds who lounge around our streets waiting for a good opportunity to steal from those who work. It is growing worse daily.

A RUMOR is afloat in Washington to the effect that Secretary Evarts will be nominated Minister to London in place of Mr. Welsh, who, it is said, wants to come home. It is further said that Mr Evarts has become weary of the monotony of the State Department, and that he prefers two years in London. Well, as Evarts must have given his conscience a terrible wrench in his efforts to consummate the fraud by which Mr. Hayes was made President, Hayes should not hesitate to put himself a little out of the way to gratify Mr. Evarts' wishes in such matters.

THERE is neither marrying nor giving in marriage in Heaven, and now it is proposed that there shall neither be marrying nor giving in marriage in the State of New York without a license from the civil authorities. The passage of a bill by the Legislature, embodying this limitation, would enable clergymen to say, with more confidence in its propriety than they say it now—"Whom God hath joined together let no man put asunder."

A STENOGRAPHIC machine has been invented by M. If this machine works with facility, it ought to revolutionize printing and chirography.

THE rule which went into effect January 1st, in the New York and some other Banks not to receive silver dollars except as a special deposit, has not as yet had any effect upon the circulation and standing of the standard silver dollar. This is due perhaps as much to the comparatively limited amount of the dollars in circulation as to the fact that the discrimination against them was by no means general among the banks of the country.

A MORE candid than discreet Louisiana politician asked Mr. Hayes if it were not a trifle "cheeky" for the American people to be sending missionaries to Polynesia so long as there were hundreds of immortal souls in the New Orleans custom house under the thumb of J. Senator Hampton.

From the Charleston News and Courier.

The career of Gov. Hampton is rich in surprises to those who think they know him best. A born commander, he had no superior as a cavalry officer in the army of Northern Virginia. The higher he rose in rank the more conspicuous was his ability. In the arena of politics he is even more successful than on the tented field. How well he bore himself amid unforeseen perils the pages of history tell. However complex the situation, his perception was always clear and his sagacity unerring. His most marked quality as a soldier—the faculty of choosing, without a moment's hesitation, the strongest position where to stand and fight—is equally prominent in his civil life. Well, therefore, may the people of South Carolina be confident that he will be as much to the State in the Senate as he was in the executive chamber, or when his sabre flashed early and late in Virginia and the Carolinas. And surely in the Senate he will be welcome as one who was unflinchingly loyal to the Union of the States which sprang from the heart and brain of the Old Thirteen, as one who is true to the Union as it is, and as one who, demanding always the free and full enjoyment of every constitutional right himself and for his people, lives that there may be peace on the ruined shores of South Carolina, contentment in the homes made desolate, and concord and freedom everywhere.

A Dangerous Power.

Phil. Chronicle-Herald.

What service has the federal supervisor done in behalf of the purity of elections? Why should he be paid for doing nothing that is good and much that is bad? The federal supervisor has been used by the republican party to defile the ballot-box and choke off the free expression of the popular will. He has been the appointee and the tool of the republican party, though ostensibly the servant of the people who pay him. The law makes the supervisor a peace officer; the republican party has made him a disturber of the peace and a polluter of the ballot. There is plenty of power in the states to preserve the peace, without any federal interference. The supervisor law is too dangerous a power to be in the hands of the party.

Railroad Secured.

Oxford Torchlight.

It is with pleasure that we announce to the public that the railroad from Oxford to Henderson is secured. A large and enthusiastic meeting of the citizens of the county was held at the Court House yesterday evening, and steps taken to build the road. The required amount of $10,000 was subscribed. The stockholders will meet in this place next Tuesday, at 1 o'clock, for the purpose of completing the business, electing officers, &c. The people of the county are invited to meet with them on that day. The levy of taxes for the corporation of Oxford and Oxford Township will then be made. At last our people are to have railroad facilities.

The Great Victory.

Washington Post.

The Democratic party has shown itself worthy of a victory by winning one. Stubbornly holding every inch of ground and gallantly pressing forward, it has at last driven the Republican party to defenses so untenable that their complete and unconditional surrender is only a question of a few short months. To embitter defeat there have been added humiliation and disgrace. The Democracy fought for honest juries, the obliteration of infamous test oaths, the perfect immunity of the voter from even so much as a threat of military surveillance, and lastly the abolition of those convenient tools of Federal tyranny—the deputy marshal and ballot-box supervisor.

SHELBY, N. C., March 4.

Correspondence of the News.

I notice in your paper of February 28th, 1879, an article copied from the New York Times purporting to have been written to that paper by a Raleigh Correspondent in which article, myself and a number of other gentleman, who were members of the Legislature of 1876-77, are attacked in a vile and most slanderous manner.

My explanation of my part of the robbery of the State Treasury, referred to by said correspondent, is as follows, on the eve of my departure for Raleigh as a member of the Legislature in November 1876, the Sheriff of my county, B. F. Logan, Esq., handed me the election returns of Cleveland county, and asked me to carry them to Raleigh for him, and to deliver them to the Secretary of State and to collect for him the legal amount due him for making said returns. On my arrival in Raleigh, I delived them to the Secretary of State, who receipted me therefor, and told me, on presentation of his receipt to the Auditor, he would audit claim of Sheriff Logan, for said service, and would give me his warrant on the State Treasurer, for the amount due for said service. I presented the receipt of the Secretary of State to the Auditor, and he gave me a warrant on the Treasurer for the amount due Logan, which warrant or order I presented to the Treasurer, and drew the money. I do not remember whether the claim was allowed in my name, or in the name of the Sheriff of my county, nor do I care, for the money was drawn for the Sheriff, and not for myself, and paid to him in full, as the following affidavit of B. F. Logan, Sheriff of Cleveland county will show.

NORTH CAROLINA, } SUPERIOR COURT,
Cleveland County } CLERK'S OFFICE
March 4th, 1879.

B. F. Logan Sheriff of Cleveland county, being duly sworn, says: That on the eve of the departure of R. McBrayer, for Raleigh, in November 1876, as the representative from Cleveland county, I handed to him, the election returns, from Cleveland county and asked him, to deliver same to the Secretary of State, and draw my legal pay for same for me, and that said R. McBrayer, on his return home, just before Christmas of 1876, paid me the whole amount collected by him for me for making said returns, retaining nothing for his services. Affiant further swears that he was Sheriff of Cleveland county in 1876, and for several year prior thereto, and is Sheriff at the present time.

B. F. LOGAN.

..... Sworn to and subscribed be-
(SEAL) fore me, March 4th 1879. Wit-
..... my hand and seal of office.

F. D. LATTIMORE,
Clerk Superior Court, Cleveland Co.

I desire to say further, to the people of North Carolina, that the Raleigh correspondent of the New York Times or the writer of the article referred to, is a malicious liar, a contemptable scoundrel, and had he justice done him, he would to-day be wearing his hair closely shaven, and have his body adorned with a striped suit of clothes, not of a very costly materia, and his headquarters would be in a commodious hotel, not in Raleigh, but near that city where he would find associates suffering the penalties of the law, who had never committed as grave violations thereof as he himself.

The Last Hour.

Washington Post.

The last hours of Radical ascendency in the Senate were embittered by the phantom of an old man in Mississippi, who quietly settled down in private life fourteen years ago. When the Republican party had undisputed control of every department of the Government, and was carrying matters with a high hand, regardless of the Constitution, it had this old man in its power, locked up in a cavement at Fortress Monroe. But even then it could not be induced to put him on trial for any alleged crime. He became an elephant on the party's hands, and was only gotten rid of by an artful device to discharge him on bail. Since that time his name has been used by Radical leadeas as a spell to conjure with. Whenever the Northern heart has declined to be fired by ordinary combustibles, a distorted or invented utterance of Jeff Davis' has been employed to start the combustion. But this stale trick is beginning to be understood, and the Northern people are growing ashamed of being frightened at the mention of the name of one who passed from the stage of public life when the young men of today were children. The Republican leaders in the Senate made an exhibition of puerile folly when they got up a scene over this old man. Degenerate as the Radical party is, its rank and file are not so cowardly as to be scared out of their senses by this clap-trap; and the American people are not so mean as to wish to cast a stigma or insult on one Confederate leader while his associates are bearing an honorable part in every department of the public service.

The Walking Mania.

Brooklyn Eagle.

THE walking mania is becoming serious. Madame Anderson's feat produced some curious results when she sent a score of women, totally unfitted for the task, upon the track, each trying to do what she could not; but in the case of Van Ness the mania seems to have assumed a still more violent and dangerous form. Van Ness is endeavoring to walk 2,000 half miles in 2,000 consecutive half hours, and has already accomplished some 1,700 odd miles. Yesterday the nervous wear and tear to which he has been subjected seemed to render him preternaturally irritable. In addition to other causes of nervous excitement, he partook for the first time of alcoholic stimulants, and rather overdid the thing, for after behaving like a madman on the track he rushed into his room, seized a revolver, which had been presented to him, and fired several shots at random. The proprietor of the hall narrowly escaped being killed, for one bullet went through his hat; two female pedestrienne in an adjoining apartment were frightened by a bullet whizzing past them, while one of Van Ness' trainers had a piece shot out of his arm. This is a whim which threatens to imperil spectators and will materially reduce the probable profits of the exhibition. It is quite clear that Van Ness, being deprived of sleep, is in a state of cerebral irritation which bodes ill for his reason."

So it Would Seem.

Cedartown Advertiser.

As Hol zelaw "got out of the way" we presume her epistle had the desired effect. We fail to see, however, why she should grow so waspish when it is made public. If she and the doctor conducted their campaign upon the high moral principles and with the spotless freedom from trickery and double-dealing which they always claimed, it would seem that they ought to be not only willing but anxious that all the details of it should have the greatest publicity, for the good effect it might have on the politics of the country if for no other reason.

TOADYSM AT THE WHITE HOUSE.

Mr. and Mrs. Hayes Attempting Court Airs

Washington Correspondent of the Philadelphia Record.

The society season has ended, and the votaries of the hollow-bearded goddess are resting from their labors under a pretence of keeping Lent. The season has been more brilliant, socially, than the preceding one, and not so brilliant as some which have preceded that. The foreigners have led the second display this season, as is quite becoming, since they mostly have plenty of money and nothing else to do but dance attendance upon society. The White House receptions have all been creditable, except the closing grande affair of Tuesday night last. On that occasion somebody blundered horribly, and led the President into making what "Dandreary" would call an "ath of bisself." So long as he followed the advise of his wife and confined himself to a modest, democratic display of himself and his belongings, he succeeded admirably and might have closed the season with the reputation of having been the most democratic and at the same time most sensible and gracious host the White house has seen for a time, but when he cut loose from his wife and allowed Evarts to run him, he succeeded in almost rivaling the asininity of Sanford, the diner, when in search of the Belgian mission. He gave a diplomatic dinner, and advertised himself a toady by railing off the diplomats from the rest of the Assembly with a string of blue ribbon. The blunder of the President was very similar. He, or rather Evarts, desired to make the affair very select, which was clearly his right, but when he sought to make it select by following the fashion of the old world, and inviting only titles, he ceased to be the President of a republic of men and became a toady to a title. The second blunder was in advertising what he had done, and the third was in gratuitously insulting the press by inviting its members to stand in the vestibule with the coachmen and colored servitors of the titled within. There, too, it was his unquestioned right not to invite any members of the press if he decided that he did not want their presence or to have invited some and declined to have invited others, since journalists are like other men, and in society subject to the same rule but instead of doing that, he said to the three or two who took enough interest in the affair to inquire, that he could not invite some he would like to have present because others were obnoxious, as if the same rule would not have applied to the Congressmen, or the diplomatists, either, for that matter. To this piece of cowardice he added the blunder of insulting the few correspondents who were not obnoxious by inviting them to stand in the vestibule with the coachmen; and, on top of this, it is asserted that he was guilty of the unpardonable impoliteness of inviting gentlemen with the ladies of their household, and then, at the door, refusing admittance to certain ladies of certain households because they happened to be tainted with enough brains to write for the press. Altogether, it was an exhibition of snobbery which must be credited to some one else than the sensible woman who ordinarily manages the social economy of the White House. The most ridiculous part of the affair is that after keeping out many of the most talentented people of the city because they happened not to be either a Colonel, Captain or ar Congressman, and after shutting the door in the face of reputable and virtuous newspaper folks, the doors were opened wide to mere than one fast woman, who had the entree because she was the mistress of a Congressman or a Captain, and was welcomed to the exclusive (?) society of the evening.

Some Points for Matrons.

Philadelphia Post.

Heads that were adorned with regular "ducks" of bonnets beat over note books, while delicate hands, encased in kids, traced upon the paper the directions given by Miss Dods, in her second "lesson" on cookery, at Association Hall, recently.

There were present ladies of all ages—the miss with a domestic turn, seeking knowledge on one of the most important of household duties, and the stately matron, beginning at the wrong end of her life, striving to fortify herself against the absolute rule of the Goddess of the Kitchen.

The little Scotch lady, in a plain black dress relieved with a white apron, took up her position behind her preparation table and preceeded with the day's duties. Besides her regular recipes and her demonstrations, Miss Dods throws out a wonderful amount of valuable information to housewives incidentally. In the course of her discourse yesterday she said that single cream, or that which had stood for twelve hours before being skimmed was such as should be used for tea and coffee.

For culinary purposes, such as beating, etc., double cream, or that which had stood twenty-four hours before being skimmed, should be used. Butter cream should stand forty eight hours. The double cream could then be whipped more quickly and brought much better results with no fear of turning to butter. She said she recognized the difficulty of getting just what was wanted in the city, but those who could purchase direct of farmers might be able to secure a good article.

To make a smooth dressing, always add the flour to the butter as soon as it has melted, or place them in the pan together. While preparing one of her dishes it becomes necessary to boil some flour and milk. In doing this she stated that when corn starch or flour from the sides of the vessel in which they are placed, it is an infallible rule that they are cooked sufficiently.

The discoloration in the yolk of hard-boiled eggs, she said was the result sometimes of over-cooking, but most frequently of cooling by degrees. To avoid this, the best thing to be done is to plunge them immediately into cold water as soon as they were taken from the fire.

In her first lesson, on Friday, Miss Dods instructed her audience in the art of setting a sponge for bread, yesterday she oppened the programme by teaching them the art of baking this article.

The dough was floured and then kneaded. It was then put in a small greased pan, and put in a warm place for half an hour before being put in the oven.

She then proceeded to show how to prepare macaroni, make Charlotte russe; prepare soups, truss or fowl, and make dressing for boiled fowl.

Vegetine

FOR

CHILLS, SHAKES,

FEVER AND AGUE.

TARBORO, N. C., 1878.

DR. H. R. STEVENS:—

Der Sir,—I feel very grateful for what your valuable medicine, Vegetine, has done in my family. I wish to express my thanks by informing you of the wonderful cure of my son; also, to let you know that Vegetine is the best medicine I ever saw for Chills, Shakes, Fever and Ague. My son was sick with measles in 1873, which left him with rheumatism. My son suffered a great deal of pain all of the time; the pain was so great he did nothing but cry. The doctors did no help him a particle, he could not lift his foot from the floor, he could not move without crutches. I read your advertisement in the "Louisville Courier-Journal," that Vegetine was a great Blood Purifier and Blood Food. I tried one bottle, which was a great benefit. He kept on with the Medicine, gradually gaining. He has taken eighteen bottles in all, and he is completely restored to health, walks without crutches or cane. He is twenty years of age. I have a young person, fifteen years of age, who is subject to chills. Whenever he feels one coming on, he comes in, takes a dose of Vegetine and that is the last of the Chill. Vegetine leaves no bad effect upon the system like the most of the medicines recommended for Chills. I cheerfully recommend Vegetine for such complaints. I think it is the greatest medicine in the world.

Respectfully, MRS. J. W. LLOYD.

Worcester's Dictionaries.

Sanford's Series comprises four books, and is based upon the analytic system:

Sanford's First Lessons in Analytical Arithmetic, 16 mo., 27 cents.

Sanford's Intermediate Analytical Arithmetic, 16mo., 34 pp., stiff bound, 45 cents.

Sanford's Common School Analytical Arithmetic, 255 pp. half roan, 80 cents.

Sanford's Higher Analytical Arithmetic, 8vo., 415 pp. half roan. Cloth sides, $1.25.

The definitions are clear, and the analyses exhaustive. The work is practical, and abounds in slate exercises. The experience of a large number of the best teachers in this country is cited, with Sanford in hand, pupils discover an unwonted enthusiasm in studying the science of numbers.

The Complete Series of Worcester's Dictionaries.

Quarto Dictionary. Illustrated and Unabridged. Library sheep, $10.

FRIDAY, MARCH 7, 1879.

To Minnie.

I've sought each plighted vow to fill
And ever faithful proved;
And, oh, I fondly love thee still
If ever human loved.

I sought thee when no kindly friend
Would come to thy relief;
Forsaken all but to defend
Thee when oppressed with grief.

This faithful heart hath yearned
For thee in times agone,
When other hearts have coldly turned
And left thee all forlorn.

But how canst thou so soon forget
A friend so tried and true,
Whose every thought of perfect love
Turns fondly unto you!

LIVER

This important organ weighs but about three pounds, and all the blood in a living person about three gallons) passes through it at least once every half hour, to have the bile and other impurities strained or filtered from it. Bile is the natural purgative of the bowels, and if the Liver becomes torpid it is not separated from the blood, but carried through the veins to all parts of the system, and in trying to escape through the pores of the skin, causes it to turn yellow or a dirty brown color. The stomach becomes diseased, and Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Constipation, Headache, Biliousness, Jaundice, Chills, Malarial Fevers, Piles, Sick and Sour Stomach, and general debility follow. MERRELL'S HEPATINE, the great vegetable discovery for torpidity, causes the Liver to throw off from one to two ounces of bile each time the blood passes through it, as long as there is an excess of bile; and the effect of even a few doses upon yellow complexion or a brown dirty looking skin, will astonish all who try it—they being the first symptoms to disappear. The cure of all bilious diseases and Liver complaint is made certain by taking HEPATINE in accordance with directions. Headache is generally cured in twenty minutes, and no disease that arises from the Liver can exist if a fair trial is given.

No greater wrong can be done than to say that Consumption is incurable. GLOBE FLOWER COUGH SYRUP will cure it when all other means have failed. Also, Colds, Cough, Asthma, Bronchitis, and all diseases of the throat and lungs. Read the testimonials of the Hon. Alexander H. Stephens, Gov. Smith and Ex-Gov. Brown of Ga., Hon. Geo. Peabody, as well as those of other remarkable cures in our book, free to all at the drug stores, and be convinced that if you wish to be cured you can be by taking the GLOBE FLOWER COUGH SYRUP. BLOOD

Grave mistakes are made in the treatment of all diseases that arise from poison in the blood. Not one case of Scrofula, Syphilis, White Swelling, Ulcerous Sores and Skin Disease, in a thousand, is treated without the use of Mercury in some form. Mercury rots the bones, and the diseases it produces are worse than any other kind of blood or skin disease can be. DR. PEMBERTON'S STILLINGIA AND QUEEN'S DELIGHT is the only medicine upon which hope of recovery from Scrofula, Syphilis or Mercurial diseases is reasonably founded, and the only cure Cancer. $10,000 will be paid the proprietors if Mercury, or any ingredient not purely vegetable and harmless can be found in it.

DAILY NEWS

FRIDAY, MARCH 7, 1879.

News Telegrams.

Cabinet to be Remodled.

LONDON, March 6.—A Paris correspondent to the Daily News fears M. Tirard, new Minister commerce in compromise by which he entered the cabnet, yielded more than his colleagues. The correspondent adds: "This probably does not matter much, as, according to all I hear the whole cabinet must be thoroughly remodeled before long. Deputy M Aneriuex, New Prefect Police must seek reelection to the Chamber on his appointment. It is most doubtful whe ther he will be successful, as he is in disfavor with Lyons reds for having made a speech against the plenary amnesty wherein he described Lyons Communists as assassins.

Boat Match.

TORONTO, March 7.—A special from London to the Globe says "Edward Hanlan commenced the regular training yesterday and is in good hands. Howden will proceed to New Castle in a fortnight, Haulon's boat arrived Saturday in good condition. Prospects every way satisfactory."

Greenbackers Convention.

CHICAGO, March 6.—The Greenback Club Convention adjourned last night. The attendance has been small only 150 delegates being preseut to represent the 620 clubs said to be in existence. The proceedings have not attracted much attention here.

Appointed.

WASHINGTON, March 6.—The President to-day appointed Geo. Holmes to be Collector of Customs for the district of Beaufort, S. C.

Death.

ROME, March 5.—Singnor Taufani the most eminent of Italian Lexicographers is dead.

Robbing Private Letter Boxes.

The records of the building department for the first two months of 1879 as compared with the first two months of '78 show a marked increase in the amount of busines transacted and indicate a healthy revival in the building interest of the city.

An investigation by a special agent of the Post Office Department recently concluded, has unexpectedly revealed an organized system for robbing private letter boxes of which merchants and others will be officially warned. A young man, recently arrested, has confessed that a gang has been engaged some time in robbing private letter boxes and occasionally the street lamp post receptacles for letters.

Secretary of State Saunders.

Durham Tobacco Plant.

One of the first official acts of the new governor was the appointment of Wm. Saunders to the position of Secretary of State to fill the unexpired term of the lamented Englehard. No better appointment could have been made and it is especially gratifying to the people of Orange who know and admire Col. Saunders. Such appointments does credit to our Governor.

Judge Grant, of Iowa, who delivered the oration at Chapel Hill, last commencement, is a practical philanthophist, creditable to his "bringin' up." He has adopted seventeen girls and married nearly all of them——to other fellows; and in each case he gives the bride a generous outfit. If this should meet the eye of Judge Grant, we can recommend him to a young man who would like to board round at his house in time for the next "outfit, etc."

Homocide in Moore.

Chatham Record.

A man named S. W. Seawell was killed in Moore county near the Chatham line last week under the following circumstances. It seems that the Revenue officers had been quite active in that section recently destroying illicit stills, and among the stills captured was one one belonging to a desperate character named N. B. Taylor, which was placed by the officer in charge of Seawell and three others to convey to Egypt. While on the way the way they were overtaken by Taylor who shot Seawell, and compelled the other three to return with the still. Seawell died the next day, and Taylor ran away and has not yet been arrested.

Another County Heard From.

Torchlight.

The reform Legislature reminds one of Artemus Ward's patriotism. Artemu was willing to shed, in the defense of his country, the last drop of blood he had in the veins of any able-bodied relatives and our reformers feel it a patriotic duty to curtail the salaries of Governors, Judges, &, to ante war figures, but their own per diem remains untouched.

They busy themselves under the cry of reform in depriving the unfortunate lunatics, inside and outside of the asylum, of those remedial agencies and physical comforts which the constitution gurantees to these wards of humanity; and they vote $324,000 annual subsidy to the Northern mortgage bondholders of two bankrupt railroads. Granville county's portion of this rail road tax will approximate $6000 per annum, and yet she has no interest in either.

Good advice.

New York World.

The Herald is prodigal of advice to the democracy as to what it should and should not do in the matter of the election laws. In view of the fact that our esteemed cotemporary has several times buried the democracy, it might not be impertinent to advise it to let the democracy hoe their own row, and reserve its rhetoric for the supreme article on the Wednesday after the first Monday in November, 1880, which will make it clear to all men that the democratic triumph of the eve was exclusively the work of our esteemed cotemporary.

Tilden's Resort.

Brooklyn Eagle.

It seemed to us to require no gift of prophecy to predict Mr. Tilden's renomination, as soon as it was made apparent that he had been elected President and had been unjustly deprived of the office. His nomination is a logical necessity. By his displacement as a candidate, the party that insists it has been cheated and insulted would itself condone the fraud by which it was kept out of power. No party can do this and live. The American people are of right the Court of Last Resort, and the fraud of 1876 cannot be suffered to pass into history until they shall have an opportunity of officially passing judgment upon it.

To the Readers of this Paper.

Most of you are familiar with our "Bible Propositions" which have been published in this paper for over two months. We are glad to know, that several hundred of you have already availed yourselves of its benefits, and realized, to some extent, the wonderful virtues of the "Seven Springs Mass." Being induced to try it on account of the fairness of the proposition. We fully expected some few would demand the "Prize." Thus far not one has put in a claim. On the contrary, we have been the recipents of "Bibles," and other tokens of appreciation expressive of gratitude and acknowledgments for having called their attention to the remedy.

Our object for making that offer, was not merely to relieve headaches, for that which many regard as a case of headache, is in reality only a symptom of more serious and complicated diseases, it was therefore, more to reach these complaints, (the names of which we dislike to publish in news papers.) Knowing if the Mass was properly used for headache, the patient would discover its great value for other diseases, and we are glad to say, the plan has succeeded well, as evidenced from hundreds of correspondents, and the rapidly increasing demand for the Mass—and is being sold by all Druggists.

Our country is getting to be fearfully alarming, the average of life being lessened every year, without any reasonable cause, death resulting generally from the most insignificant origin. At this season of the year especially, a cold is such a common thing that in the hurry of every day life we are apt to overlook the dangers attending it and often find too late that a fever or lung trouble has already set in. Thousands lose their lives in this way every winter, while had Boschee's German Syrup been taken, a cure would have resulted, and a large bill from a doctor been avoided. For all diseases of the throat and lungs, Boschee's German Syrup has proven itself to be the greatest discovery of its kind in medicine. Every Druggist in this country will tell you of its wonderful effect. Over 950,000 bottles sold last year without a single failure known.

Dread and despair fall upon the community when a terrible epidemic, like the cholera or yellow fever, suddenly desolates our homes: yet, all the while, a more insidious, but no less fatal foe, enters thousands of households every year and carries off the flower of the family in the early flush of manly youth and budding womanhood People call it presumption, or "decline." It is not, in most cases, the tubercular phthisis or consumption of the lungs, which is the peculiar malady in climates like those of the British Islands and New England, but a general decay or arrest of the vital processes of nutrition All the doctors agree that there is no remedy for this but COD LIVER OIL but they are constantly met by the obstacle of inability on the part of the patient to swallow or retain it. This repulsion is entirely overcome by SCOTT'S EMULSION OF THE OIL with the HYPOPHOSPHITES OF LIME AND SODA which is agreeable to the taste and an unfailed nutrient and tonic for the body nerves and brain.

A Remedy that has been Remedied.

The invincible repugnance felt by almost every one to the smell and flavor of cod Liver Oil, has prevented tens of thousands of the victims of debility, from reaping the benefits of its peculiar healing and nutritive properties. The almost hopeless consumptive, the martyr to rheumatism, the barely living shadow of men, women and children that emerge from the clutches of malarial fevers, all of these know, or at least their doctors know, that of all discovered remedies, this Oil is the best, and often the only one that will build up their wasted bodies, and and restore their shattered nerves, and far more effective than the Oil by itself is Scott's Emulsion of it, with the Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda. This is the purest and most natural food and medicine in the world, and wholly deprived of its disagreeable qualities. Sold by Wm. Simpson, Druggist. March 4-d&w Sw

FROM A PROMINENT VETERINARY SURGEON.

Mr. Wm M. GILES, Chemist, Sir: I have practiced extensively in Europe and America, and your new discovery, Liniment Iodide of Ammonia, surpasses any thing I ever used for splints, strains, lameness in the limbs or shoulders, weakness across the kidneys, wind galls, and hard, bony swellings on the joints. It is truly marvelous.

Yours very truly,
RALPH OGLE,
Veterinary Surgeon, 320 W. 25th St., N. Y.
Sold by all Druggists.

Rescued, Restored, Revived,

It is marvellous how the rounded outlines of the form are restored, the pale and sallow cheek vivified with the ruddy hue of health; the muscular fibre braced and strengthened, the nervous system and the brain toned and invigorated, by the steady use of Scott's Emulsion of Pure Cod Liver Oil and Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda. It is by far the most elegant and effective preparation in the whole catalogue of medicines, and in the disorders indicated by scrofula, consumption chronic coughs, and the various forms of debility, it is a wonderful remedy. It is also deprived of all its disagreeable properties, and as sweet and palatable as cream. feb 14 1p

COMMERCIAL FERTILIZERS

What to Buy

That Commercial Fertilizers are essential to the successful production of crops can no longer be questioned. This has been settled by actual experience of the most successful farmers North and South, as well as upon the highest scientific authority.

The question therefore for the consideration of the farmer is, what to buy, in the shape of manure.

The answer to this question is: What has stood the test? What guano stands before the farmers of North Carolina as a practical success? We answer, the Pine Island Ammoniated Phosphate.

That it is a success we have certificates from leading farmers in every section where it has been used—men who have used Commercial Manures for years and make money by it.

We don't dare say it does not pay to make manure at home. It does pay. And no one can be successful in farming unless he makes manure. When he has made all the manure possible the deficiency must be supplied by Commercial Fertilizers, for no one who cultivates cotton for profit (and that is the only profitable crop that can be raised in our section) can make on his farm a sufficiency of manure for his crops.

We offer the Pine Island Guano to supply this deficiency. In the fullest confidence that it is the best and cheapest fertilizer sold in the State.

We have arrangements for supplying it in any quantity, in good strong sacks, so that it can be transported any distance without loss.

The season for planting is now nearly at hand and we hope to receive all orders early so that they can be booked for immediate shipment from the Rail Road Warehouse thus saving the expense of drayage and handling.

Most Respectfully,
M. T. LEACH & CO.

We desire to establish agencies at all the principal Rail Road Stations in the cotton section.

With good reliable agents satisfactory terms will be made.
